Part IGraduate School of WFU Programme*WFU (World Fisheries University) PROGRAMME at PKNU

Graduate School of World Fisheries University (WFU) Programme will be operated at Pukyong National University (hereinafter “PKNU”) in Busan, Republic of Korea. The PKNU has long been maintained its reputation for advancing the fisheries and aquaculture sciences since 1941. In addition, PKNU has been operating an International Fisheries Science Cooperation Course since 2010 and it therefore brings considerable background experience to this initiative. Moreover, Busan is the largest harbor in the country and it is home to a host of fisheries related research institutes. It is anticipated that being located in a business and research cluster so relevant to its function will allow staff and students to interact with these institutions.

The Graduate School of World Fisheries University (WFU) Programme will last for 18 months. It will deliver one Fisheries Science Master’s degree course comprising three semesters, starting in the Fall of 2017. The course will be offered to thirty students from developing countries (who will be selected following the procedure and criteria outlined in part II). The Master’s degree of Fisheries Science is divided into three concentrations: Aquaculture Technology, Fisheries Resources and Management, and Social Science. Ten students will be accepted into each concentration. All international students receive full scholarships.

The students will be required to complete eight out of a total twelve courses of three credits each, as reflected in the curriculum outline. The students will further be required to attend a non-credit preparatory course that includes an overview of the study of Fisheries Sciences, assignment of study and thesis advisors, thesis planning, etc., as well as a course on thesis research methodologies. Finally, students will be required to prepare and submit a Master’s Thesis.

Historical Background

In the last several decades, dramatic economic growth put South Korea on the map, earning the name “Miracle of Han-River”. With such prosperity, the country aims to share its knowledge of rapid growth with developing and least developing countries. As a former recipient of overseas aid and education investments from developed nations, South Korea was able to establish a strong foundation for rapid advancement of its educational system. This investment in human resources development played an integral part in lifting the country from poverty. Korea’s own experience and model for development can offer unique solutions for developing countries to tackle poverty.

Korea's experience and WFU for human resources development

The need for adequate fishery governance at global, regional and national levels has become even more evident in light of the recent international developments. In November 2014, the 2nd International Conference on Nutrition adopted the Rome Declaration and Framework of Action, which confirmed the importance of fish and fish food as a source of nutrition and health. In September 2015, the UN member states adopted the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development, which includes several Sustainable Development Goals that are directly relevant to fisheries and aquaculture and to the sustainable development of the sector.

The Memorandum of Understanding(hereinafter “MOU”) establishes the fundamental role of education and knowledge transfer, and of the importance of strengthening human resources to support developing countries in their efforts to end hunger, achieve food security and improved nutrition and promote sustainable agriculture.

Fisheries resources are an important food source to address food shortages and serves as a vital source of protein. Fish now accounts for almost 17% of the global population's intake of protein, and in some coastal and inland countries it can be as high as 50%. However, fisheries throughout the world confront growing threats, including rapid unhealthy expansion and from illegal unreported unregulated (IUU) fisheries. This not only endangers the supply and distribution of an essential food source in developing countries, it also negatively impacts the marine eco-system and the harms the livelihood of local communities that rely on fishing for income. These pressing issues demonstrate that better management and good practices are indispensable, especially developing countries. To secure long-term sustainable prosperity for food distribution through sustainable fisheries, systematic educational in fisheries resources management and aquaculture technology is essential.

Therefore, as a response, South Korea will operate the WFU with the aim of providing educational on the fisheries industry to contribute to the enhancement of fisheries resources, fisheries, aquaculture and fisheries economics and policies.

Part II	PROGRAM OVERVIEW

☐ Program Title: Graduate School of WFU Programme

☐ Duration

- Stay duration: By the end of August, 2017 – February 28, 2019 (18 months study in Korea)

During 18 months in PKNu, students are strongly recommended to complete their thesis.

- Academic duration: September 1, 2017 – February 22, 2019 (18 months)

In accordance with the university regulations, the certificate of Master's Degree will be issued in February 2019.

☐ Degree: Master of Fisheries Science(Aquaculture, Fisheries Resources Management, and Social Science)

☐ Objectives

- To educate fisheries specialists in a variety of subjects in fisheries science including aquaculture, fisheries resources management, and social science
- To contribute to the development of the fisheries industries in participating countries.
- To facilitate cooperative relationships and expand networks between participating countries, and Korea in the field of fisheries science

☐ Educational Institution

- Institution: Graduate School of WFU Programme, Pukyong National University

☐ Number of Prospective Students: 30 students (by three majors, Aquaculture, Fisheries Resources and Management, and Social Science. Each major will be composed of 10 students)

- ☐ Language: English fluency that requires no translation
- ☐ Accommodations
- Dormitory of Pukyong National University
 - The dorm rooms are designed for double or single occupancy.
 - Each room is fully furnished with a desk, a bed, a wardrobe, a sink, a bathroom and electric appliances (a LCD television, a refrigerator and an air-conditioner).

Part IIIHOW TO APPLY*1. APPLICATION ELIGIBILITY

- ☐ Be a national of developing countries.
- ☐ Be an applicant in his/her home country with a Bachelor's Degree
- ☐ Have a high level of understanding classes conducted entirely in English and to be able to write academic reports and thesis in English (Advantage points will be added for English proficiency test score with TOEFL, IELTS, or other internationally recognized English Tests).
- ☐ Be in good health, both physically and mentally, to complete the program.
 - Pregnancy will result in disqualification.
 - Having Tuberculosis or any kind of contagious disease will result in disqualification.

2. ADMISSION PROCESS

Process	Dates
Step 1. Document Screening	July, 17 2017-July, 27 2017
Step 2. Final Admissions Notification	July, 28 2017

✕ The timeline in this table is based on local time in Korea and subject to change.

► Post Admission

Process	Dates
Arrival in Korea	Around the end of August, 2017
Orientation	In September, 2017

A. APPLICATION PACKAGE SUBMISSION

- The application package (including both PKNU application forms and other required documents) can be downloaded through <http://pknu.ac.kr/pknuoia> and application documents should be sent by the submission date (July 14, 2017).
- Scanned copies are acceptable but original copies should be sent to PKNU.
- Applicants who submit the scanned copies should send the original copies to PKNU personally. PKNU does not pay postage costs for late submission of original copies.

B. DOCUMENT SCREENING

- Document screening will be processed by PKNU. Application package will be thoroughly reviewed by Committee of Graduate School of World Fisheries.
- Every component included in the application package such as the reputation of undergraduate school, undergraduate GPA, English proficiency, current affiliation, working experience will be evenly evaluated.

C. ADMISSIONS NOTIFICATION

- Admissions results will be notified to the applicants. Registration instructions, course registration and other necessary steps will be guided to individuals

3. REQUIRED DOCUMENTS

※ Important Notes for Applicant:

1. Name and birth date on the application forms must be the same as the one on passport.
2. All forms must be typed in English (no italics) and all the supporting documents must be written in English. Documents in any other language must be accompanied by a notarized English translation. ※ No translated document in English will be rejected.
3. Original documents must be submitted. Should they be unavailable, however, copies must be authorized by the originating institution before they are submitted.
4. If any of the submitted materials contain false information, admission is rescinded.
5. Applicant whose forms and supporting documents are incomplete or unsatisfactory is disqualified for the admission process.
6. Applicant should take full responsibility for any disadvantage due to his or her mistakes or omissions in the application.

① A PKNU application form

② A recommendation letter from an academic advisor of the applicant's previous university

③ A personal statement and a study plan

④ A certificate of (expected) graduation(Bachelor's Degree) and transcripts in English

- Title of degree, department name and undergraduate institution name must be specified.

⑤ A legal, state-issued certificate of the family registry (that verifies applicant's family relationship)

- ※ Size: 35x45mm (The area from the top of the head to the chin must be no less than 29mm, and no more than 34mm high.)

2. CURRICULUM

The education provided by the Master's degree program is in accordance with the international standard. This includes introducing advanced practices and knowledge in Korean fisheries and offering capacity building to gain a comprehensive understanding of and in response to international standards and key issues, such as acquiring fisheries and aquaculture technologies, training, policy making and management skills development, prevention of IUU fishing, etc. Courses cover not only specialized theoretical education, but also include field training and experiments to provide an in-depth perspective. The universities and research institutes in the field of fisheries will cooperate to allow students to utilize their scientific equipment.

A. CURRICULUM AND CREDITS

- Must complete at least 24 credits for graduation, excluding the thesis submission.

Semester	Subject	Professor	Description
2017-Fall	Fisheries economics & trade	Professors in Social Science	To understand the theory of economic exploitation of living resources dealing with two dynamic systems; population dynamics and the dynamics of economic system
	Aquaculture systems & management	Professors in Aquaculture	To develop an understanding of fisheries biology and to learn about fish population dynamics, systematics, aquaculture system, aquatic ecology, marine ecology, and water pollution.
	Fisheries stock assessment	Professors in Fisheries Resources Management	To estimate how many fish there are, and they predict how fish populations will respond to harvesting and various other human activities. To provides important science information for conservation and management of fish stocks.
	Principles of inland fisheries	Professors in Fisheries Resources Management	To manage inland fisheries and its ecosystems, identifying issues and agreeing actions using groups comprised of a range of interests and skills and developing multi-purpose action plans that tackle issues at inland fisheries.
	Small scale & Subsistence fisheries	Professors in Social Science	To understand the small scale & subsistence fisheries related to the criteria developed for classifying fishers and resources suitable for their use, land the sectoral approach to small-scale & substance fisheries management
	Finfish aquaculture	Professors in Aquaculture	To learn about the different types of fish, especially those characterized by fins, and the methods of culturing them. And to conduct practical work on a local finfish culture including; carrying out feed formulations and feeding, management.

Semester	Subject	Professor	Description
	Fisheries technology & operations	Professors in Fisheries Resources Management	To develop the capacity fishing gear experts, designers, and engineers by learning four areas: principles of engineering, fishing gear design and constructions, tests of fishing gears, and selectivity of fishing gears.
2017-Winter	Thesis Research methodologies	Lecturers	To learn that the researcher has expanded beyond his or her projections and has obtained some kind of breakthrough and synthesis of findings that can be communicated through consensus
2018-Spring	Fisheries management & governance	Professors in Social Science	To learn the basic framework for fisheries management and governance structure, and to develop the knowledge and understanding, which will improve the ability to effectively and sustainably develop, manage, and utilize fisheries and marine resources.
	Crustacean & molluscan Aquaculture	Professors in Aquaculture	To understand the different types of Crustacean & molluscan culture techniques. Topics include general biology, types, classifications & identifications and selected examples of species that are commonly used for farming.
	Seafood disease & safety	Professors in Aquaculture	To develop knowledge, understanding and skills, to allow professionals in aquaculture to produce high quality and healthy seafood production
	Climate change impacts on fisheries	Professors in Fisheries Resources Management	To understand effects of climate on fisheries in order to (i) show that climate affects the distribution, productivity and resilience of fish stocks, (ii) develop our understanding of the processes, and (iii) draw lessons from past experience
	Blue Growth & the Blue Economy	Professors in Social Science	The unit is aimed at reconciling economic growth with improved livelihoods and social equity, and strengthening transparent, reliable and more secure food Systems. It aims to create an enabling environment for workers involved in fisheries to act as resource users.

2018-Summer	Thesis Research	Thesis Advisor
2018-Fall	Thesis Research	Thesis Advisor	Graduate qualifying examination Thesis defense

B. ACADEMIC SYSTEM

1) ACADEMIC YEAR

- The academic year consists of two (Spring and Fall) and two seasonal sessions (Summer and Winter).
- Semester: 15 - 16 weeks (Spring: from early March to mid-June; Fall: from early September to mid-December)
- Seasonal session: 17 days

2) CREDIT

- Semester: maximum 12 credits
- Seasonal session: maximum 3 credits
- Assessment: mid-term and final exam, assignment, attendance and special exam for a subject
- Credit system

Grade	A+	A0	B+	B0	C+	C0	D+	D0	F
Point	100–95	94–90	89–85	84–80	79–75	74–70	69–65	64–60	59–0
GPA	4.5	4.0	3.5	3.0	2.5	2.0	1.5	1.0	0.0

3) CLASS ATTENDANCE AND PARTICIPATION

- Attendance for every class is compulsory to earn good academic scores. Lecturers will check you attendance in order to evaluate your academic scores with other assessments at the end of the class.
- In addition, participation in lectures is also an important part of university academic life.

- Most lecturers encourage students to have discussions, as it allows fresh ideas to be discussed and to be exchanged. Lecturers take note of students' positive participation as valuable and everyone is encouraged to express his or her view.

C. TITLE OF DEGREE

This is a Master's Degree program in Fisheries Science. Master candidates who complete at least 24 credits and submit their thesis (non-credit but required course) will be granted the degree. The title of the degree is Master of Fisheries Science.

D. MEDIA AND METHODS OF INSTRUCTION

English is the medium of instruction. Not only the courses but all academic affairs will be conducted in English. Students do not need any prior knowledge of Korean language. Students can complete all their requirements for graduation within 14 months. Courses are designed to ensure students gain practical expertise. Participatory teaching methods will be fully utilized. Diverse methods such as experiment, simulation, debate and case study will be employed to enhance problem-solving ability.

E. GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

1) CREDIT AND GPA

- Minimum grade in each course: C0
✧ Anything below C0 will not be considered as a passing grade.
- Minimum cumulative GPA for graduation: B0 (3.0/4.5)

2) GRADUATE-QUALIFYING EXAMINATION

- Exam subjects: Three courses that students should pass in all session
- Minimum point for graduation: 70 /100 points in each exam subject
✧ Only one additional make-up exam might be possible only if chairperson of IGFS approves.

3) THESIS

✧ Grade for a thesis can be "Pass" or "Fail".

■ Students should:

- Select a thesis advisor during the preparatory session
- Register for master's thesis research course at the 3rd semester

- Submit their thesis to Thesis Advisory Committee (TAC) and the Dean of Graduate School of Global Fisheries at least one week before the defense date
- Successfully defend their thesis from the TAC members during 4th session.
- Officially print their thesis within a year after defense

■ Thesis Advisors should:

- Be a person having a Ph. D. in the relevant research field
- Organize two persons of TAC, who are faculty members or specialists, to guide the student's thesis

■ Thesis Advisory Committee (TAC) should:

- Formally communicate all the procedures in completing thesis projects
- Inform the graduate candidate of the evaluation progress of thesis
- Report the result of defense to Dean of the Graduate School of Global Fisheries within a week after defense
- Make a decision for approval of the degree and report to the President of PKNU

✧ If serious theoretical or ethical problems are found in the thesis, the Graduation committee can withdraw the degree.

4) GRADUATION PROCEDURE

- Check the minimum requirements for the Master's degree;
 - Completion of minimum of 24 credits
 - Completion of all the required courses
 - Completion of thesis project
 - Average GPA must be above 3.0/4.5 (B0).
- All the graduate candidates must submit the following documents;
 - Three copies of thesis
 - Application form for thesis review
 - Abstract of thesis
 - Review report by thesis advisor

3. EXTRACURRICULAR ACTIVITIES

- ☐ Research Institutions and Industrial Sectors: Fisheries Related Institutions (NIFS, KMI, KIOST, GFSRI, FIRA, etc.), Aquaculture Farms, Seafood Processing Factories, Feed Processing Factory, etc.
- ☐ Public Administration Sectors
- ☐ Conference and Exhibition
- ☐ Cultural and Exposition Places

Part VGraduate School*1. GENERAL INFORMATION*A. PUKYONG NATIONAL UNIVERSITY (PKNU)

Pukyong National University (PKNU) has been regarded as the best university in the undergraduate educational system by unifying two local national universities successfully for the first time in Korea. Looking back at the educational history of these two universities (National Fisheries University of Busan and Busan National University of Technology), it has been more than 80 years from the moment of their inception.

PKNU has 60 departments and 15 interdisciplinary programs offering Master degrees, and 56 departments and 12 interdisciplinary programs offering Doctorate degrees.

PKNU's new goal is to be a member of the top 100 global universities. We are also planning to support the development of promising new academic areas and to enhance the levels of specialized research projects in at least three fields of studies with the aim of being to among the top 10 globally.

We will develop a more extensive global educational network to continue to give our students numerous opportunities to discover and realize their potential as globally competent human resources. Under the support of student exchanging programs, our students will be able to learn new research at foreign research institutions and experience diverse exotic cultures in other countries. At the same time we will continue to encourage highly qualified international students to come to study here with us and to develop a curriculum to meet their academic needs.

2. ACCOMMODATION

A. DORMITORY

Dormitory at each campus (Daeyeon Campus and Yongdang Campus) of the University provides you with an opportunity to live in a comfortable, secured and well-managed environment. It has a central heating system, cafeterias, computer room, laundrettes and lounge areas. Each room is fully furnished, but a participant has to bring his/her own linen, towel, slippers, and other things that he/her may need. The room will be occupied by single or double, and each room is furnished with a bed, a desk and a cabinet. Also each room comes with a private shower/lavatory room, a phone, wired and wireless LAN and air conditioner. In addition, there are two common laundry rooms in the dormitory basement (B1). There are several coin washing machines. For long-distance and international calls, it is cheap to use pre-paid phones with calling cards that participants can buy the cards at the convenience stores around the campus. It is prohibited to cook and to use electric heating appliances (cooker, heater, iron, kettle, etc.) in the room because of fire risk. Dormitory offers basic meals during the 17-month stay period. However it is unable to offer halal foods because of meal unit. Dormitory always offers eggs, fish and vegetables for Muslim participants.

B. CAMPUS LIFE

1) Student ID Card

WU Graduate School will assist you filling out forms for obtaining a student ID card. It can take up to three weeks to process your ID cards. When you have it, you can enter the university library and access all public university facilities.

2) Library

There are five libraries (the Central Library, the Engineering Library, the Architecture Library, Humanity Library and the Study Library) on the Daeyeon and Yongdang campuses and each of them is separately managed. You will be able to make full use of the libraries, such as checking availability of materials on the library computer system, photocopying, reservations and inter-library loan services. The library opens on a daily basis except Saturdays, Sundays, National Holidays and University Foundation Day. You need a student ID card to enter the library and to borrow books and other materials. 4) Health Care

- Health Care at the PKNU

Health Clinic Center is located in the student union building, 2nd floor. The Health Clinic Center provides basic but important health services. The staffs at the Center are dedicated to providing medical services including free checkups (Hepatitis B and 22 other kinds) each semester, first aid, health consultations, medication and treatment in case of sickness or injury. Dental care and treatment is available on Tuesdays and Thursdays at a low price (Professional doctor will be in the clinic twice a week). If you would like to use the service, you need to book in advance (<http://myweb.pknu.ac.kr/health>).

5) Global Lounge

The International Affairs Office, PKNU provides a special space for international students. The room is located on Daeyon Campus, 1st floor of the Dongwon Jang Bogo Hall. International students can use the room freely for group meetings, study and discussion. There are also some books that students can read or borrow for their study. Students can watch the news from their home countries or practice their language skills with the brand new satellite broadcasting system (<http://oireng.pknu.ac.kr>).

6) Sports Facilities

There are tennis, basketball and football courts and in-door fitness centers located on Daeyon and Yongdang Campus. The fitness centers are open to registered members only.

7) Cultural Experience Program & International Day

The Cultural Experience Program is a one-day field trip to traditional places in Korea. We offer this program once a semester. Seats are limited, so international students should be quick to apply once the notice is posted. Every semester, an International Day is organized by the staff from the International Affairs Office. International students can share not only their ideas for a better campus life at the PKNU, but also their impressions of the PKNU life through Q&A time with staffs from the International Affairs Office (<http://oireng.pknu.ac.kr>)

8) Free Korean Language Course

The Language Educational Center of PKNU provides a 15-week free Korean language courses for international students and lecturers. In these courses, students will learn how to speak the Korean language, grammar, reading, and all necessary language skills for their campus life.

2. PARTICIPANT'S RESPONSIBILITIES

Students are required

- To take up the scholarship in the academic year for which it is offered (deferral is not allowed).
- To follow the educational program to the best of their ability and abide by the rules of the Graduate School.
- To reside in the accommodation designated by the educational institute for the duration of the course except for holidays or temporary leave.
- To maintain an appropriate study load and achieve satisfactory academic progress for the course. If the student fails to attain certain grades required by the university, his or her status as a program student may be suspended.
- To participate in all activities associated with the approved course of study including all lectures and tutorials, submit all work required for the course and sit for examinations unless approved otherwise by the educational institute in advance.
- To notify the educational institute in advance and get an approval for temporary leave.
- To advise Graduate School of any personal or family circumstances such as health problems or family problems which may seriously affect their study.
- To refrain from engaging in political activities or any form of employment for profit or gain.
- To agree to Graduate School collecting information concerning them and passing that information onto other relevant parties, if necessary.
- To return to their home country upon completion of their educational program.
- Not to extend the length of their educational program or stay for personal convenience; PKNU will not provide any assistance and be responsible for extension of their stay.

3. WITHDRAWALS

- In principle, a student is not allowed to withdraw from the course at his or her own option once the course starts.
- A student may withdraw with valid personal or home country's reasons (such as health or work issues) acceptable to Graduate School.
- If a student fails to attain certain grades required by the Graduate School, he or she may be forced to withdraw and return.
- The student who withdraws may return to the PKNu the whole or partial living allowance he or she has already received for the remaining period from the date of departure from Korea.

4. TEMPORARY LEAVE

- Students can have temporary leave (to the students' home country or for a trip abroad) on the condition that the trip does not affect their schoolwork and as long as they notify the university in advance.
- Graduate School does not pay airfare for the trip. If the trip exceeds 15 days, PKNU will not pay the living allowance for the absent days which exceed 15 days.
- If the student is found to have made an unreported temporary visit to his or her home country or travelled to other countries or made a trip despite the university's disapproval, his or her living allowance will be suspended (from the day of departure to the day of return).

5. ACCOMPANYING OR INVITING FAMILY

- As the Graduate School Program is a very intensive program which requires full commitment to and concentrated effort for study, students are recommended not to bring any family members.

5. OTHERS

- Graduate School will assume any responsibility only within the limit and scope of the insurance for participants.
- Graduate School is not liable for any damage or loss of the student's personal property.
- Graduate School will not assume any responsibility for illness, injury, or death of the students arising from extracurricular activities, willful misconduct, or undisclosed pre-existing medical conditions.
- If the students break any of the rules of Graduate School during their stay in Korea, their status as a program student may be suspended.
